

WHAT DOES A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A RANGATAHI WORKING IN 2040 LOOK LIKE?

what needs to occur so that industries thrive in 2040?

- Prioritisation of te taiao (the environment)
- Sustainable energy uptake
- Diversified worldviews become the new normal
- Embedding our values into automated activities
- More investment into interpersonal skills what might radical change look like in 2040?

- Rangatahi can seamlessly incorporate their culture and worldviews into their mahi
- There are no barriers for rangatahi realising their potential
- Fully indigenised workforce and education pathways
- People live and work where they want
- Taught skills are interchangeable across careers
- Maximised work life balance
- Proactive planning for change also informed by our history