Guidance Information

- Unit standards in the People Development and Coordination domain are about engaging with and leading people to achieve outcomes as individuals and teams.
- People will be assessed for this unit standard on evidence from authentic experience in an organisational context, with all the expectations and possible consequences of that context. The context may include but is not limited to:
 - the candidate's workplace
 - where the candidate is a volunteer
 - a cultural, community, or sporting organisation
 - a special event.
- For this unit standard a team is a group of people in a workplace who work together to achieve set objective(s).
- The assessment context for this unit standard must be suitable to meet the criteria for Level 4 in the NZQF Levels Descriptors, which are available by searching for “levels descriptors” at www.nzqa.govt.nz.
- Definitions
Organisation refers to a specific entity which may be – in private, public, or community and volunteer sectors; a business, a discretely managed unit within a larger entity, a Māori organisation, or a special-purpose body.
Organisational requirements may include but are not limited to:
 - organisation purpose and/or direction
 - organisation policies and processes
 - compliance: legislative/legal, health and safety
 - risk management
 - sustainability.
- Assessment materials should consider Te Tiriti o Waitangi - Programme Development: Supporting Information
